1 System Overview

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) provides a full listing of Federal programs available to State and local governments (including the District of Columbia); federally-recognized Indian tribal governments; Territories (and possessions) of the United States; domestic public, quasi-public, and private profit and nonprofit organizations and institutions; specialized groups; and individuals.

All Users: From the site’s main navigation page, any user (not password protected) can utilize navigation to review:

- General Information
- Programs
- Agencies
- Agency Regional and Local Offices
- Privacy Statement

Government Users, when logged into the system using their password-protected account, can do the following:

- Agency Program Submitter:
  o Maintain account profile
  o Create New Programs
  o Revise Existing Programs
  o View/Edit Regional Agency Offices

- Agency Coordinator:
  o Maintain account profile
  o Manage user accounts for Agency staff
  o Review/Edit Programs submitted by their Agency’s users

- OMB Reviewer:
  o Review all Programs
  o Edit Programs for their respective Agencies

- RMO Superuser
  o Assign OMB reviewers to agencies
  o Review all programs
  o View/Edit Regional Agency Offices

Public Users do not require system user accounts. The public can locate Programs based on various search criteria directly from the homepage or via the Advanced Search Form. Public users can also access listings of Agency Regional and Local Offices (currently Appendix IV in the 2008 print edition).

2 System Homepage

2.1 System URL

The URL for the system is https://www.cfda.gov.
2.2  Navigation Bar

The Navigation across the top of the homepage allows users access to the following features without being logged onto the system. Note: The current section that the user selected will be highlighted in red.

2.2.1 Programs

This section provides access to the complete listing of published program descriptions in the CFDA.gov system.

I. Click on the “View” icon next to the desired program to view complete program details.
   There are two main options from the Program Information page:
   a. Click “Back to Programs” to return to the complete program list.
   b. Click “Print” to open a new window with the option to print and/or close the window.

II. Conduct a quick keyword search by typing desired search criteria into the open text field, and clicking the “GO” button.

III. Click on the “More Search Fields” link to display additional quick search options, including Agency and Assistance Types drop-down fields. (Click on “-Less Search Fields” link to hide the additional fields.)

IV. Sort search results by clicking on the column headers with the black arrow, including Program #, Program Title, and Agency/Office.

V. Display 10, 20, 50, 100, or 250 programs per page by using the “Showing ## per page” drop-down and selecting the desired number.

VI. Navigate to different pages by clicking on the “Jump” drop-down and selecting the desired page number, or by clicking the “Next” and “Previous” links.

VII. Save programs to Excel by following these steps:
   a. Enter a checkmark by clicking in the checkbox next to the desired programs. Alternately, click on the “+” sign in the column header to select all programs currently listed in the search results if applicable. (Deselect all selected programs by clicking on the “-” sign.)
   b. Click the “Save Check marked Items to Excel” button. (Note, the system will inform the user the number of selected items in the space next to this button.)
   c. Follow your browser’s instructions for opening/saving the file.
   d. The file will contain the following data elements for the selected programs: Program #, Program Title, Agency/Office, Types of Assistance, and Published Date.

VIII. Navigate to the Advanced Search Form by clicking on the link in the “Search Tip” note at the top of the page, or by clicking on the Advanced Search sub-tab.

IX. The Historical Index tab allows for users to view the history of all Programs that have ever been published in the Catalog.
X. Return to the Home page by clicking on the “Return to Main” link or clicking the Home button in the main navigation at the top of the page.

2.2.2 Agencies

This section provides access to program listings by Agency.

I. Use the keyword search field to refine the agency list by agency name, abbreviation, or description.

II. Display a particular number of Agencies per page by using the “Showing ## per page” drop-down and selecting the desired number.

III. Navigate to different pages by clicking on the “Jump” drop-down and selecting the desired page number, or by clicking the “Next” and “Previous” links.
IV. Click on the “View” icon next to the desired Agency to view a complete list of associated programs. Alternately, click on the name of the desired Agency. The system will display the following sub-tabs:

a. Programs – a list of all programs for the agency (see section 2.2.1)

b. Profile – Provides a detailed description of the agency and the agency’s code

c. Offices – a list of all offices under that agency
